St. Louis Heads the List of Cities—Healthful Growth in Washington.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 11.—The "Interstate Architect and Builder" says that the year 1901 was one of the most remarkable in the history of the United States for the immensity of its building operations, as told in reports received in the office of the "Interstate Architect and Builder."

Not only were building operations conducted on a larger scale, but the structures themselves were greater in extent and were made of finer material, despite a 50 per cent increase in prices of material, and a rise in cost of labor.

St. Louis Heads List. St. Louis leads the country in growth, with 123 per cent increase over 1900, in value of buildings for which permits were issued. In almost every month she showed a great increase, in some cases double

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM GEORGETOWN

RECTOR FOR ST. JOHN'S ACCEPTS

Rev. Frederick B. Howden, of Cambridge, to Take Charge Early in February—Mizpah Council's Meeting.

Rev. Frederick B. Howden has formally accepted the rectorship of St. John's Episcopal Church. The letter of acceptance was received by the officials of the church Thursday night.

The new rector will enter upon his duties early in February. He has held important charges in the Episcopal Church and has been a conspicuous figure in the Maryland diocese. Bishop Paré numbered him among the ablest of his assistants, and Bishop Satterlee has spoken of him in particularly eulogistic terms. He comes to Georgetown from Cambridge, Md.

The congregation is awaiting the advent of the new rector with considerable interest. He has not yet been heard in the church, the lookout committee having heard and judged of his abilities in his own church.

An Installation of Officers.

At a recent meeting of Mizpah Council, No. 3, Daughters of America, held at Odd Fellows' Hall, the following officers were installed by Deputy National Councilor Mabel A. Vaux: Mrs. Catharine Passan, councilor; Edward R. Fitcher, associate councilor; Clara Newman, associate vice councilor; Lulu Piche, recording secretary; Lottie Bell, assistant recording secretary; Mabel Vaux, financial secretary; Mary D. Robinson, treasurer; Mattie Donaldson, conductor; Susan Brown, warden; William H. Summers, inside secretary; Clara Goldsmith, junior past councilor; Elizabeth Well, junior past associate councilor, and Lillie M. Milstead, trustee.

Fire in a Grocery Store.

The stock in the grocery and provision store of H. W. Fisher & Sons was damaged by fire last night to the extent of $300. The blaze broke out in the small room in the rear of the store room, in which was stored a quantity of vegetables, meats, etc. A citizen saw smoke issuing from the roof of the building about 11 o'clock and notified the Georgetown Fire Department.

But little difficulty was experienced in extinguishing the blaze. An over-heated gas stove caused the fire. The building was slightly damaged. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

An Entertainment Repeated.

A second performance was given last night of the Christmas entertainment given at the Tenleytown Episcopal Methodist Episcopal Church for the benefit of those who were unable to attend the first performance.

Those who participated were Messrs. William and Edward Thompson, Miss Dorothy Thompson, Leroy Shoemaker, Lester Welton, Reginald Yowell, Robert Freer, Sydney Chappell, Misses Riley, Burge, Houser, May Walker, and Goldie Paxton.

The Evening Times

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1902.
Publication Office:
CORNER TENTH AND D STREETS.

Unsatisfactory weather. Some of us can't exactly tell whether we're walking or riding. Unsatisfactory down the Venezuela country. That strained light the lady novelists write so feelingly about comes into our Uncle Samuel's eyes. "Something doing," breathes the observant gentleman. "It probably has to send Higginson and his North Atlantic Squadron. I guess he can hold 'em for a while." Unsatisfactory for our friend Neely. Mr. Reeves points the accusing finger and says: "Thou art the man." Speaking of the postal situation, highly unsatisfactory for the talented citizens who pass stamps out of the window and collect toll on money orders. "You keep out of politics," says the P. M. G. And there is woe in the ranks. Imagine a postmaster out of politics! As well fancy a press agent without a new—or old—story. Or a country Congressman without a proposed amendment to the River and Harbor bill. More postal notes.

Washington's Most Progressive Newspaper.

THE WASHINGTON TIMES of tomorrow will be in the nature of a continuation of the promise made in last Sunday's issue. The favor with which that edition was received has made it apparent that Washington wants an UP-TO-DATE, LIVE, CLEAN NEWSPAPER OF ITS OWN, and it is our intention to live up to this definition.

THE TIMES of tomorrow will be a HOME Paper. It will be of the kind you will want to keep. After you have finished reading it, you need not throw it away—the reference matter will be worth saving.

It would take up too much space to enumerate all the good things scheduled for tomorrow. Besides, we want you to make their acquaintance first hand. However, it may not be out of place to give brief mention to a few of the leading attractions. For example:

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND HIS HORSES. There will be pictures of the President; also pictures of the horses.

THE EX-PAGE REVISITS WASHINGTON. You will be interested in the observations of one who knew the Senate a considerable number of years ago.

CHARMING COUNTESS CASINI. She gives THE TIMES a timely talk. Dainty drawings to please the eye.

MID-WINTER GOLF AROUND WASHINGTON. Do you know where it is played, by whom it is played, and in what manner?

THE TIMES makes its appeal to the intelligence of the people. In this connection it appreciates that the EYE must be pleased. After we have, through the medium of an attractive headline, or a dainty illustration, caught your attention, we may hold it with the subject matter which goes with the headline or the cut. That is, if the subject matter be worthy of holding your attention—and we believe this to be the sort of matter we are printing. Furthermore, THE TIMES appreciates that the keynote of success is to be sounded in this wise:

A Washington Newspaper For All Washingtonians.

Washington is the important news centre of the country. The field for specialization is broader than at any other point in the land. Why, then, should it be difficult to publish a Sunday paper devoted to subjects pertaining to this particular locality? THE TIMES does not believe it is difficult. It believes there is the greatest of opportunities at its doors.

Hence, the issue of tomorrow will be about ourselves, and by ourselves we mean the District of Columbia and the neighboring sections. We might borrow a phrase from Mr. Kipling, and refer to it as "Mine Own People." If you will glance at the suggestion of what the edition of tomorrow will contain, you will gather that the SUNDAY TIMES is to be

A Washington Paper For Washingtonians, About Washingtonians.

MANY hundreds of thousands of Americans are entertained by the lighter forms of opera. Washington is a liberal patron of this style of amusement. Naturally, there is a wide curiosity as to the manner in which the score is prepared. MR. REGINALD DE KOVEN, in tomorrow's SUNDAY TIMES, WILL TELL HOW HE COMPOSES AN OPERA.

THE OLDEST GAMBLER IN AMERICA should certainly be an object of much interest. All the world has more or less of an itching to flirt with the goddess of chance. So the recollections and philosophies of this green-baize veteran should be eagerly read.

Of course all the ladies want to read the fashion hints and note the pictures showing the LATEST MANHATTAN STYLES. There will be an abundance of this sort of matter in tomorrow's TIMES.

And for the literary citizen there is plenty of his favorite brain food. THE NEW BOOKS OF THE WEEK will be entertainingly discussed, and notes and gossip of the writers will be presented.

THE CHILDREN'S PAGE will be of the character that is bound to please the youngsters.

The new things due at THE LOCAL THEATRES next week will be told of, and the latest news and chat of the stage recorded.

For the man who has a lodge—not in some vast wilderness, but in Washington—there will be a wealth of information.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY. Read about your friends and how they are passing the gay season.

FRESH BREEZES FROM THE POLITICAL STORM CENTRES. Financial Review of the Week, Real Estate Resume, and ALL THE NEWS OF ALL THE WORLD will help to make the SUNDAY TIMES of tomorrow indispensable to the progressive Washingtonian.
